Spring is in the Air!

Here in Seaside, we have had an influx of visitors, and that means that many of you are making your way into town for a visit as well. SPRING BREAK! We hope that while you are here you come by and see us.

We have a few extra things planned for the month of March and whether you are visiting for the week, or you are local and call this place home, we hope you will take advantage of the opportunities to worship and come before the Lord. To get all the info on Easter, read on or check out our website.

First of all, our great friends at 30A Prays will be out on the beach and around Seaside with their red tents ready if you want to stop by and be prayed for or if you want to join the team, check out their website for info.

You will read on the next page about The Set on March 13th, and as we head toward Easter (details on the 4th page) we are hosting some traditional services here at the chapel.

March 28th is our Maundy Thursday Service at 6pm at The Chapel - this is a communion service with an open table as we remember the Passover meal that Jesus had with his disciples on the night he was arrested.

March 29th we will host a Good Friday Service at 6pm at The Chapel - this service will be more of an experience of poetry, scripture, worship through music, and art as we journey through the stations of the cross. We are very excited to host this service.

And then, obviously, we will have Easter services on Sunday March 31st. (Again details on page 3 and 4) .

After Easter?

April starts the day after Easter. It's a new month and we are celebrating new life in Christ. we have some very intentional things planned for our community for April. Each Thursday in April from noon-1 the Chapel will be opened for prayer. If you want to come and spend your lunch hour with the Lord, we invite you into the space. We will also have someone here, from 30A Prays, to pray with you. We will have prayer guides for the time. It will be come and go. As the chapel, we will be entering into a series on prayer where we will be inviting our whole community to join in on an experiment with prayer. We will be asking our home groups to meet weekly each through April. If anyone is reading this and wants to host a group of your friends, or some people you may not know yet from The Chapel, for a prayer group for the month of April, please reach out to Sarah at Sarah@thechapelatseaside.com. This will look the same as how we did the Sabbath Experiment last October.

Don't worry. In a week, you will get an entire newsletter that is all about prayer! We are very excited to see what happens when our whole community prays!

The Chapel at Seaside is uniquely positioned, don't you think? In the back of an idyllic town with shops the locals frequent enough to be welcomed like a character on a tv show. It's only a short walk to the "world's most beautiful beaches". It is a place where the locals were (mostly) once visitors and it's a place that people can't wait to visit, making it top on the list to thousands who refer to it as "my happy place."

We have a dream that this unique position, fueled by the presence of the Holy Spirit, has the potential to change the world. As people come into town and wander the streets, what if they were drawn to the heart of God for rest and peace instead of a 5th drink or a 3rd book, or another nap.

What if the space was set for people to walk to the beach alone, or with friends or family to gaze on the beauty of the skies as the sun sets, taking time to pause after a long day of fun or work or whatever was going on, and then return to The Chapel for reflection and sitting with the Holy.

Wednesday night, March 13th, we are going to have something we are calling The Set. The hope and desire for The Set is that you would go to watch the sunset and then wander over to The Chapel for a time of reading, sitting in quiet, journaling, or worshipping. Daniel Pratt will be there leading in music, but it is come and go. Our hope is that we set the stage for you to set your heart on things above. We know this season can seem super crazy around here, but some of you literally come here for peace and to encounter the Lord. We are providing a space for you to pause with the creator, after you marvel in his creation, the sunset! We hope you take advantage at 7:00 right after the sun sets! We hope to host this event more regularly.

This is not an hour long event.

This is a space that is open for you to come and go as you feel led.

JOIN US FOR WORSHIP EVERY SUNDAY AT 10:00AM

A note on our Easter Services

(a little insider info.)

Come as you are.

The sunrise beach service is awesome.

There is plenty of space.

bring a blanket, or chairs if you wish. (and sometimes, it's cold, so feel free to bundle up!!)

The 8:00 service has been our lowest attended service in the past, and will get you to a brunch on time.

10:00am is sure to be packed. Again, feel free to bring a blanket to sit on as our physical seats are limited.
