

In Loving Memory

Jeryl Kay Eads

Jeryl Kay Eads, aka "Daddy"

Born: April 28, 1939 – Dallas, Texas

Passed: November 11, 2024 – Panama City, Florida

Jeryl Kay Eads lived a full and beautiful life for 85 years. He is survived by his daughter, Debra Kay (Pete Pearson), and his beloved grandchildren, Toni Renee (Brandon Garcia) and Meadow Marie. Jeryl was preceded in death by his wife, Von; his parents, Alfonso and Sammie Eads; his brother, John "Lumpy" Eads; and his son, Curtis Glen Eads.

Tuesday, November 19th at 10:00
The Chapel at Seaside

Order of Service

Musical prelude	How Great Thou Art - Hymn 6
The Word of Grace and Greeting	Andrew Beard
Prayer
Song of Faith	In The Garden - Hymn 476
Scripture	Psalm 23 and John 14
Message	Andrew Beard
Eulogy	Provided by Debbie Pearson
Song of Faith	Amazing Grace - Hymn 104
Reflections and Witness	Meadow Marie Eads, Steve Duncan & Zac Ragsdale
Commendation	Andrew Beard
The Lord's Prayer	Bill Evett
Blessing and Benediction	Andrew Beard

Thank You

Thank you to our family, friends and community for their continued support.
A celebration luncheon will be held at Pete and Debbie's home:
276 W Lafayette Rd, Inlet Beach in Naturewalk Origins.

In His Memory

Memorial in his honor: thepwmc.org/donate
The mission of Point Washington Medical Clinic (PWMC) is to build a stronger and healthier community by providing high quality primary health care regardless of the patient's means or access. By being volunteer driven, PWMC's own costs will be maintained at a substantially lower cost per patient than other providers